10 1 1928 South Wales Evening Post

An alarming crash between a and a lorry laden with workmen occurred at the cross-roads near the Neath Borough Police Station on Monday night The lorry owned by Mr Sambrook Davies of Wind-street and driven by Charles Hooper of Eva-street was conveying miners home from work and when crossing from The Parade to Cattle-street collided with an Osborne driven by Albert Nye of Neath Abbey It appears that each driver through blowing his own horn vigorously failed to hear other The impact was exceedingly violent and the lorry crashed into a lamp standard which was broken off and hurled towards the door of the tire-station Only one man was injured he being Patrick Summers a passenger in the lorry who received a cut on the head He was attended to by PC Tal Davies before being taken home The escape of gas was stopped with difficulty and a new standard was erected on Tuesday morning

29 11 1929 Neath Guardian

POLICE CONSTABLE'S SUBPICIONS. COAL STEALERS FINED.

Archie Felton, 12, Bowen Street, and Herbert Watts, 15, Thomas Court, both of Neath, and unem-' ployed, were charged, at Neath County Police Court on Friday, with stealing cwt. value the property of "Sambrook Davies, a haulage contractor of Wind Street, P.C. Thomas Hollingdale said that he saw the two men in Briton Ferry Road with two bags containing scmething. They turned into Bowen Street, and he followed and asked them what they had. They admitted it was coal.

Felton said We took the coal from a truck at the crossing in Pontrhydyfen. If you will give us a chance we will take it back. P.C. Evan Jones spoke to taking the men into custody, who, when charged, had nothing to say. They were fined 10s

Neath Guardian 19 6 1931

Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, Neath, was. fined 20s. for permitting a car to be used without two indea pendent braking systems.

Mr. T. Llewellyn Jones, Neath, appeared for the defendant. P.C. Cyril Dando said that at 11.45 p.m.

on May 27th he saw motor lorry between Seven Sisters and Crynant. The rear identification plate of the lorry was bent back and the numbers were, worn away. hand-brake lever was tightly on, but the vehicle could easily be pushed forward. Sambrook Davies said there were two number plates on the lorry, and Lawrence said that he had previously tested the hand-brake and found it all right.

30 10 1931 Neath Guardian

Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, pleaded guilty to permitting and using a vehicle which did not carry fire extinguisher. P.C.Dando said that Sambrook Davies said Don't report me. will get one this morning.

5 2 1932 Port Talbot Guardian

REFLECTING MIRROR WANTED. Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, Neath, was lined 10s. for using Ft motor vehicle without a reflecting mirror. P.C.

Owen said that on Jamie.) 14th he saw Davies driving motor van without the necessary mirror. He said: "I will have one put on."

25 4 1932 Western Mail

A motor-lorry belonging to Mr. Sambrook Davies, Wind-street, Neath, and conveying colliers to the Cefncoed Colliery, was burnt out on the new Crynant road on Saturday morning. received The driver, Ivor Morris, Neath, burns, but the passengers escaped injury

6 5 1932 Neath Guardian

Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, Neath, was fined 20s. P.C. Dando said that at 3 p.It. on April 14th he stopped Davies near Cefncoed Colliery because his lorry was parked full of colliers, and some were hanging over the side. If the vehicle had lurched men would have fallen off.

There were 32 passengers in the lorry, which was licensed to carry twenty. Davies said, My green lorry had broken down, and what could I do? It is not my fault if I have only got two lorries, and the load is getting too much for me." Davies said that there was no other way of taking the men to work

28 10 1932 Neath Guardian

Sambrook Davies, Wind Strett, Neath, was fined 40s. for permitting the motor van to be used, and ordered to pay the costs for employing an unlicensed person to drive. P.C. Dando said that at 3.15 p.m. on September 27ta, he saw We kins driving a public service van in Neath Road, Cetn Coed.

He had no public service vehicles driver's badge. Another man had to hold the brake while Davies got out of the van. He saw Sambrook Davies, who said, The other man is sick This one has applied for a licence." David Thomas Williams, clerk in the Traffic Commissioners' Office, said that the vehicle was not licensed and Watkins warned not to drive until he received the licence

10 3 1933 Neath Guardian

DEFECTIVE TYRES. At Pontardawe Police Court on Friday, Sambrook Davies, a haulage contractor, of Neath, was fined 20s. for using a motor van with defective tyres, and 40s. for overloading the van.

Police Sergeant Fitzpatrick said the front tyres were worn and the canvas was showing in places. Thirty people were in the van which was only licensed to carry twenty.

17 3 1933 Neath Guardian

NOISE OF LORRIES COMPLAINT. Sambrook Davies, The Bungalow, Pencaerau, Neath, was summoned for leaving a motor lorry on the highway without a front or rear light and obstructing the highway by.a motor lorry.

He pleaded not guilty. P.C. Clifford Birch said that at 12.40 a.m. on February 28th he was on duty at the Old Road, Pencaeran, when he saw a stationery motor lorry without front or rear lights, and at 12.55 a.m. it was still there.

He called on Davies and told him that his lorry was causing an obstruction and he would report him. Davies replied: Do as you well like. The Chief Constable knows all about it." The Chief Constable said that complaints had been received about the noise made by lorries in the district and Davies had explained that he left the lorry on the road because there was less noise when he moved it from there than down the gradient at the side of his bungalow. Davies had thirteen convictions. Davies said that one of his drivers left the lorry there that night without his knowledge.

He would do his best to comply with the regulations, but he sometimes left the lorry on the road to avoid disturbing the neighbours by taking it up the gradient. Davies was fined 10s. on each of the three counts.

16 6 1933 Neath Guardian

NO ROAD FUND LICENSES. For using motor vehicles without road fund licenses, and in some instances, aiding and abetting,

Sambrook Davies, 150, Old Road, Neath, David John Davies, Old Road, Neath, ordered to pay costs

.

17 7 1933 South Wales Evening Post

NEATH 'BUS PROPRIETOR FINED Sambrook Davies, aged 53, 'bus proprietor, of Neath, was sumpublic service vehicle in Wassailmoned at Swansea to for leaving a square for three and a half hours, and also for leaving it without lights. Defendant said the 'bus had broken down, and he was told by the garage people that it would be all right.

He was under the impression that the garage people would have taken it in. Defendant was fined 10s. on each summons.

21 7 1933 Neath Guardian

NEATH 'BUS PROPRIETOR FINED. Sambrook Davies, aged 53, 'bus proprietor, of Road, Neath, was summoned at Swansea on Monday, for leaving a public service vehicle in Wassail Square for three and a half hours, and also for leaving it without lights. Defendant said the 'bus had broken down, and he was told by the gar. age people that it would be all right. He was under the impression that the garage people would have taken it in.

Defendant was fined 10s. on each summons

29 9 1933

Theft of Sheets. David Mort, 43, Wind Street, Neath, was charged with stealing and receiving 16 bed sheets and 11 bed ticks from a bedroom at 63, Wind Street, the property of Sambrook Davies, and value £1 18s. 0d. He pleaded not guilty. Sambrook Davies, The Bungalow, Old Road, Neath, a haulage contractor, said that up to six months ago he kept a lodging house at 43, Wind Street, Neath.

He had since sub-let the lodging house into flats. There were a number of bed sheets and bed ticks in the lodging house, which were his property. When he checked them he found 3 number missing. Madeline Constance Cooper, Clifton House, Swansea Road; Trebanos, said that about three's weeks ago she visited Mr. lodging house, and Mort showed her the bed spreads.

The following week, Mort visited her and bought the sheets. She paid him but they were so poor that she demanded the money back. Detective Constable Moody said that he arrested Mort, who, in reply to the charge, said, "I know nothing about bed ticks." Mort said that he had no intention of stealing the articles, and he was going to pay Davies for them. Mr. H.

L. Prowse, marine store dealer, said that Mort was a good and honest workman, in whom he had implicit confidence. Mort was bound over for twelve months.

30 9 1933 Herald of Wales

NOT WORTH TWOPENCE" Trebanos Woman Who Gave Neath Man for Sheets David Mort, of Wind-street, Neath, was charged at Neath Borough

police court with stealing and receiving 11 bed ticks and 16 bed sheets, value £1 the property of Sambrook Davies, of Old-road, Neath. Sambrook Davies said that up to about 6 months ago he kept a lodginghouse at Wind-street, Neath.

A quantity of bed sheets and bed ticks were left in a room, and some of them were missed. Defendant was living in the house. Madeline Constance Cooper, Swansea-road, Trebanos, said that defendant called at her house with sheets for sale. She gave him 4s. for a bundle.

but when she opened it she found the sheets were dirty and not worth twopence. She demanded her money back, and she got it. Defendant, who said he was going to pay the sheets, was given a good character, and was bound over for 12 months

.

10 1 1928 South Wales Evening Post

An alarming crash between a and a lorry laden with workmen occurred at the cross-roads near the Neath Borough Police Station on Monday night The lorry owned by Mr Sambrook Davies of Wind-street and driven by Charles Hooper of Eva-street was conveying miners home from work and when crossing from The Parade to Cattle-street collided with an Osborne driven by Albert Nye of Neath Abbey It appears that each driver through blowing his own horn vigorously failed to hear other The impact was exceedingly violent and the lorry crashed into a lamp standard which was broken off and hurled towards the door of the tire-station Only one man was injured he being Patrick Summers a passenger in the lorry who received a cut on the head He was attended to by PC Tal Davies before being taken home The escape of gas was stopped with difficulty and a new standard was erected on Tuesday morning

29 11 1929 Neath Guardian

POLICE CONSTABLE'S SUBPICIONS. COAL STEALERS FINED.

Archie Felton, 12, Bowen Street, and Herbert Watts, 15, Thomas Court, both of Neath, and unem-' ployed, were charged, at Neath County Police Court on Friday, with stealing cwt. value the property of "Sambrook Davies, a haulage contractor of Wind Street, P.C. Thomas Hollingdale said that he saw the two men in Briton Ferry Road with two bags containing scmething. They turned into Bowen Street, and he followed and asked them what they had. They admitted it was coal.

Felton said We took the coal from a truck at the crossing in Pontrhydyfen. If you will give us a chance we will take it back. P.C. Evan Jones spoke to taking the men into custody, who, when charged, had nothing to say. They were fined 10s

Neath Guardian 19 6 1931

Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, Neath, was. fined 20s. for permitting a car to be used without two indea pendent braking systems.

Mr. T. Llewellyn Jones, Neath, appeared for the defendant. P.C. Cyril Dando said that at 11.45 p.m.

on May 27th he saw motor lorry between Seven Sisters and Crynant. The rear identification plate of the lorry was bent back and the numbers were, worn away. hand-brake lever was tightly on, but the vehicle could easily be pushed forward. Sambrook Davies said there were two number plates on the lorry, and Lawrence said that he had previousily tested the hand-brake and found it all right.

30 10 1931 Neath Guardian

Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, pleaded guilty to permitting and using a vehicle which did not carry fire extinguisher. P.C.Dando said that Sambrook Davies said Don't report me. will get one this morning.

5 2 1932 Port Talbot Guardian

REFLECTING MIRROR WANTED. Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, Neath, was lined 10s. for using Ft motor vehicle without a reflecting mirror. P.C.

Owen said that on Jamie.) 14th he saw Davies driving motor van without the necessary mirror. He said: "I will have one put on."

25 4 1932 Western Mail

A motor-lorry belonging to Mr. Sambrook Davies, Wind-street, Neath, and conveying colliers to the Cefncoed Colliery, was burnt out on the new Crynant road on Saturday morning. received The driver, Ivor Morris, Neath, burns, but the passengers escaped injury

6 5 1932 Neath Guardian

Sambrook Davies, Wind Street, Neath, was fined 20s. P.C. Dando said that at 3 p.It. on April 14th he stopped Davies near Cefncoed Colliery because his lorry was parked full of colliers, and some were hanging over the side. If the vehicle had lurched men would have fallen off.

There were 32 passengers in the lorry, which was licensed to carry twenty. Davies said, My green lorry had broken down, and what could I do? It is not my fault if I have only got two lorries, and the load is getting too much for me." Davies said that there was no other way of taking the men to work

28 10 1932 Neath Guardian

Sambrook Davies, Wind Strett, Neath, was fined 40s. for permitting the motor van to be used, and ordered to pay the costs for employing an unlicensed person to drive. P.C. Dando said that at 3.15 p.m. on September 27ta, he saw We kins driving a public service van in Neath Road, Cetn Coed.

He had no public service vehicles driver's badge. Another man had to hold the brake while Davies got out of the van. He saw Sambrook Davies, who said, The other man is sick This one has applied for a licence." David Thomas Williams, clerk in the Traffic Commissioners' Office, said that the vehicle was not licensed and Watkins warned not to drive until he received the licence

10 3 1933 Neath Guardian

DEFECTIVE TYRES. At Pontardawe Police Court on Friday, Sambrook Davies, a haulage contractor, of Neath, was fined 20s. for using a motor van with defective tyres, and 40s. for overloading the van.

Police Sergeant Fitzpatrick said the front tyres were worn and the canvas was showing in places. Thirty people were in the van which was only licensed to carry twenty.

17 3 1933 Neath Guardian

NOISE OF LORRIES COMPLAINT. Sambrook Davies, The Bungalow, Pencaerau, Neath, was summoned for leaving a motor lorry on the highway without a front or rear light and obstructing the highway by.a motor lorry.

He pleaded not guilty. P.C. Clifford Birch said that at 12.40 a.m. on February 28th he was on duty at the Old Road, Pencaeran, when he saw a stationery motor lorry without front or rear lights, and at 12.55 a.m. it was still there.

He called on Davies and told him that his lorry was causing an obstruction and he would report him. Davies replied: Do as you well like. The Chief Constable knows all about it." The Chief Constable said that complaints had been received about the noise made by lorries in the district and Davies had explained that he left the lorry on the road because there was less noise when he moved it from there than down the gradient at the side of his bungalow. Davies had thirteen convictions. Davies said that one of his drivers left the lorry there that night without his knowledge.

He would do his best to comply with the regulations, but he sometimes left the lorry on the road to avoid disturbing the neighbours by taking it up the gradient. Davies was fined 10s. on each of the three counts.

16 6 1933 Neath Guardian

NO ROAD FUND LICENSES. For using motor vehicles without road fund licenses, and in some instances, aiding and abetting,

Sambrook Davies, 150, Old Road, Neath, David John Davies, Old Road, Neath, ordered to pay costs

.

17 7 1933 South Wales Evening Post

NEATH 'BUS PROPRIETOR FINED Sambrook Davies, aged 53, 'bus proprietor, of Neath, was sumpublic service vehicle in Wassailmoned at Swansea to for leaving a square for three and a half hours, and also for leaving it without lights. Defendant said the 'bus had broken down, and he was told by the garage people that it would be all right.

He was under the impression that the garage people would have taken it in. Defendant was fined 10s. on each summons.

21 7 1933 Neath Guardian

NEATH 'BUS PROPRIETOR FINED. Sambrook Davies, aged 53, 'bus proprietor, of Road, Neath, was summoned at Swansea on Monday, for leaving a public service vehicle in Wassail Square for three and a half hours, and also for leaving it without lights. Defendant said the 'bus had broken down, and he was told by the gar. age people that it would be all right. He was under the impression that the garage people would have taken it in.

Defendant was fined 10s. on each summons

29 9 1933

Theft of Sheets. David Mort, 43, Wind Street, Neath, was charged with stealing and receiving 16 bed sheets and 11 bed ticks from a bedroom at 63, Wind Street, the property of Sambrook Davies, and value £1 18s. 0d. He pleaded not guilty. Sambrook Davies, The Bungalow, Old Road, Neath, a haulage contractor, said that up to six months ago he kept a lodging house at 43, Wind Street, Neath.

He had since sub-let the lodging house into flats. There were a number of bed sheets and bed ticks in the lodging house, which were his property. When he checked them he found 3 number missing. Madeline Constance Cooper, Clifton House, Swansea Road; Trebanos, said that about three's weeks ago she visited Mr. lodging house, and Mort showed her the bed spreads.

The following week, Mort visited her and bought the sheets. She paid him but they were so poor that she demanded the money back. Detective Constable Moody said that he arrested Mort, who, in reply to the charge, said, "I know nothing about bed ticks." Mort said that he had no intention of stealing the articles, and he was going to pay Davies for them. Mr. H.

L. Prowse, marine store dealer, said that Mort was a good and honest workman, in whom he had implicit confidence. Mort was bound over for twelve months.

30 9 1933 Herald of Wales

NOT WORTH TWOPENCE" Trebanos Woman Who Gave Neath Man for Sheets David Mort, of Wind-street, Neath, was charged at Neath Borough police court with stealing and receiving 11 bed ticks and 16 bed sheets, value £1 the property of Sambrook Davies, of Old-road, Neath. Sambrook Davies said that up to about 6 months ago he kept a lodginghouse at Wind-street, Neath.

A quantity of bed sheets and bed ticks were left in a room, and some of them were missed. Defendant was living in the house. Madeline Constance Cooper, Swansea-road, Trebanos, said that defendant called at her house with sheets for sale. She gave him 4s. for a bundle.

but when she opened it she found the sheets were dirty and not worth twopence. She demanded her money back, and she got it. Defendant, who said he was going to pay the sheets, was given a good character, and was bound over for 12 months